Representative Douglass, Patron of Anti-"Dope" Drink Bill, So Refers to Them.

BUT HOUSE TABLES BILL

Members Have Sharp Tilt With Him and Proposed Measure Is Put to Sleep.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., January 25.—The lower house of the General Assembly today tabled the Douglass bill, designed to prohibit the sale of "dope" drinks at soda fountains, after a lively discussion, during which Mr. Douglass, patron of the bill, referred to soda fountains as "children's barrooms" and engaged in sharp tilts with a number of members.

The Senate devoted most of its session to the discussion of the bill to pay soldiers $2,500 each, instead of fees, with the final result that so much opposition developed that the vote was deferred, and the bill made a special order for Thursday of next week. There seems to be considerable question as to the final fate of the bill. The opposition is led by Mr. Buxton, of Forsyth, and the leadership of the advocates of the measure seems vested in Senators Webb and Mitchell.

The Anti-Saloon League forces are greatly disturbed over the persistent refusal of J. W. Bailey editor of the Biblical Recorder, to serve any longer as chairman of the league in charge of the campaign work for temperance. During the last hour of the session of the State Temperance Convention last night, great pressure was brought to bear on him to retain the chairmanship, but he refused on the ground that the sentiment of the convention seemed to be for State prohibition, and he was for prohibition by local option only, so he wants a free hand as an editor to advocate his views. The executive committee, at the last minute, was empowered to appoint a chairman.

The league is to undertake at once the raising of $500 for temperance campaign purposes. Of the ninety-seven counties in the State, eleven have dispensaries, and nineteen have saloons. All the others are under local prohibition, with anti-jug laws applying to forty-seven prohibiting liquors being shipped from other counties into them.

New Enterprises. Charters were issued to-day for the Clayton Buggy and Furniture Company, of Clayton, Johnston county, capital $10,000; and to the Banner Harness Company, of Gastonia, capital $25,000, by L. A. Arrowood and others.

To-night from 9 to 12 o'clock occurred a narrow escape from disaster to the Capital Club, of this city, in honor of Governor and Mrs. Glenn, the State officers and their wives and the members of the General Assembly and their wives. It is estimated that there were wellnigh a thousand guests.

NARROW ESCAPE. Engineer and Fireman Have Thrilling Experience. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SPENCER, N. C., January 25.—Engineer Carhardt and his fireman, who had a narrow escape from burning to death on a locomotive near Marion, on the Asheville division of the Southern Railway, yesterday. The crowd of the engine blew out with the boiler, blowing the big locomotive off the rails and tearing up the track considerably. The explosion was caused by the boiler running dry, and occurred on a mountain side.

The engineer, who was in the engine, was the engineer to stop in order to avoid a head-on collision with another train approaching with great speed. Both engines were stopped when within a few feet of each other, and no one was injured.

ROBED THEMSELVES. Enter Store and Exchange Old Apparel for New. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SALISBURY, N. C., January 25.—The dry goods store of Belk & Harry, one of the largest in Salisbury, was broken into and robbed last night, a quantity of valuable clothing being taken, and the money drawer was left undisturbed. The robbers stripped themselves completely, leaving their old clothes, and fled in new apparel. There is no clue to their identity.

Prices Steadily Advance. OXFORD, N. C., January 25.—Tobacco sales have continued lively the past week. The market shows decided activity. Weather conditions have been favorable all winter for the farmers to market the crop, and it has been sold at a rapid rate. There has been a decline in prices, but on the contrary a gradual advance.

Mr. John Hekey, of Danville, Va., who formerly lived here, is spending the week in Oxford. The campaign between two of the prominent young lawyers, Messrs. W. A. DeVin and Mr. Wm. H. Harrison, for Mayor, looks good-humored, becomes aggressive.

Mrs. S. H. Brown, who has been very sick for some time, is convalescent.

Unique Organization. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SALISBURY, N. C., January 25.—An organization to be known as the Inebriates' Relief Association was effected here yesterday. The object of the association is to assist men in taking the cure for alcoholism. The organization, Rev. R. E. Neighbor was elected president; W. F. Snider, treasurer, and G. W. Wright, secretary of the organization.

Dr. Witkowski, of Charlotte, addressed a mass-meeting of citizens here last night on the advantages of building and loan associations. A plan is on foot to organize a new association in Salisbury at an early date. The move-

TALK OF KITCHIN TO SUCCEED GLENN

Effort to Secure Statement From the Congressman on That Points Fails.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DURHAM, N. C., January 25.—Congressman W. W. Kitchen, of North Carolina, has appeared in the civil courts in Durham during a lengthy trial of Allen vs. Durham Traction Company, representing the plaintiff during a damages suit.

It has been intimated from several sources that Congressman Kitchen will be a candidate for Governor of North Carolina to succeed Governor R. B. Glenn. The correspondent made an effort to interview the Congressman to-night, but he had engagements that were very urgent, and it was impossible. For some time past it has also been talked that Solicitor A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, will be a candidate to succeed Congressman Kitchen. The intimation comes from a very reliable source, but cannot be deemed positive.

Candidate for Mayor. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SPENCER, N. C., January 25.—J. R. THOMAS, a coal dealer here, to-day announced his candidacy for Mayor of Spencer, and is being strongly supported by a large number of the citizens of the town. Mr. Thomas, who is a son of ex-Senate Senator J. C. Thomas, of Midway, Davidson county, is one of Spencer's most successful business men, and is highly esteemed by every voter in the town.

Bradstreet's Report. NEW YORK, January 25.—Bradstreet's to-morrow will say: "While weather conditions are still a bar to widespread activity in trade and industry evidences of improvement in spring demand, enlarging shipments, are a feature of the week. Additionally favorable items are an expansion in grain markets; long stagnation, based apparently on better export inquiry; rather more cheerful advices from South Atlantic States, heretofore reporting trade and collections backward; a decided easing of time money rates, with a resumption of demand for commercial paper, and good reports from the winter wheat crop."

"Colder weather South has helped retail trade, and that section, aside from a few localities, has done well this year, and prices are good. In the Northwest heavy snows have checked wheat movement and coal trains still have the right-of-way in that section, the result being beneficial to Western coal trade, but checking sales and collections. Ohio railroads have retarded demand and transportation, and caused heavy damage, but the failure of the expected freeze to follow the floods is a good point for winter wheat. Collections are irregular and will continue so till roads become passable again."

"Grain markets display more life than for five months past, and prices of wheat are up 2 cents, corn 1 cent, and oats, 1 1/2 cents."

"The demand for plannable cottons is good, and with good trade the crop of 12,000,000 bales may not be burdensome, though supplies at the close of the season may show an increase over the year before. There is a portion of an inventor's report on the consumption of mill consumption, especially in Europe, where leading authorities have added 200,000 to the season's estimate."

Educated Janitor Wanted. WANTED—A janitor, white, young, with considerable education. This is a portion of a want ad. inserted in the Kansas City Star by Dr. G. H. Hoxie, dean of the University of Kansas School of Medicine.
